Indy Reads is on a mission to help empower people to reach their full potential

100% literacy for all

Indy Reads' mission is to build the literacy, English language, and job readiness skills to empower adults and families to reach their full potential.

We are working to make our vision of 100% literacy for all a reality by providing:

- Free adult literacy classes,
- English language classes and tutoring for adults,
- Workforce certification programs, and
- HSE diplomas through our virtual and in-person Community Classrooms at Indy Reads and other locations throughout Marion County.

In an effort to ensure all students are able to complete their HSE Diploma, Educate Beyond All Barriers, Inc supply the laptops for our students.

They accepts the following donations:

Laptops

Monitors

Home printers

Thrift Store and Donation Center

Thrifty Threads is a thrift store and donation center owned and operated by The Julian Center. Your gently used clothes, home goods and furniture can help survivors and benefit The Julian Center.

When someone makes a decision to leave an abusive relationship they don't always have a lot of time to plan, or pack. That means they leave most of their personal belongings behind. When they arrive at our shelter doors the clothes they have on may be everything they have in the world. 91 percent of our clients live at, or below, the federal poverty threshold so replacing items isn't possible.

That's where Thrifty Threads comes in. We accept donations of gently used clothing for men, women and children along with household goods including linens, furniture, books, toys, and small appliances.

Our clients shop at Thrifty Threads free-of-charge for items needed to recover and to establish new beginnings. In some cases that might be clothing, furniture, or shoes and toys for their children. Excess items are sold to the public where proceeds help underwrite our victim programs and services. Your in-kind donations allow our clients to start over and to live a life free of abuse. We're a proud partner with National Council of Jewish Women.
